

The Appoggiatura

All the Chorale News that will fit

Vol. 2 No. 8 (MA)

NEXT SEASON - MAYBE?

Tentative Plans for a 21-22 Season

Mike and I have been busy planning a 21-22 season that we hope to have. Here's the schedule - put these dates on your calendar now.

December 5 - 7:30 PM - Carols and Choruses of Christmas at Magnificat. Rehearsal on December 4 at 9:30 am.

February 27 - Winter Concert - Venue TBA

May 1 - 7:30 pm - Faure: "Requiem" and Bach: "Magnificat in D" at Magnificat. Rehearsal on April 30 at 9:30 am Soloists and Orchestra members "can't wait to make music again"

We already have four outstanding soloists lined up for the Spring concert. And concert-master MaryBeth Ions was very excited to know that we may join forces again. Three of our four soloists have appeared with the Chorale before and we have an exciting

Shruti Has been Busy

Alto Shruti Aring, and her her mother have been busy teaching violin to a number of young students. Her kids are Sujith and Nithara and along with the other students can be seen in this student recital:

<https://youtube.com/playlist?list=PLBhmEy6HQ6uOg2LQlaM9Q-nwUA2-uUztG>

Now Shruti is starting a new group of kids on singing lessons and she says she is both excited and nervous. This class will have 4 to 6 year olds and if anyone in the Chorale has experience teaching music to this age group Shruti would love to hear from you.

Shruti is busy with work and she and her husband are looking forward to the end of this "Weird Virual" school year.

addition to that group, soprano Analise Dzwoncezyk, will join us for the first time. Those of you who have followed the Avon Lake Choral program will remember her. In addition, Mitzi Westra, Kevin Foster, and Tom Scurich will round out an absolutely outstanding solo quartet.

Let your Chorale friends know what you're up to during the pandemic. Send photos and info to: johndrotleff@gmail.com