Tom Glynn

March 9, 1937 - September 20, 2020

Former president and founding member of the Chorale

Just two weeks ago, Kathy Sands and I had lunch with Tom. I feel so grateful to have had this last time together with this wonderful person. Tom was the last founding member of the Chorale and was honored two years ago at our 50th anniversary celebration. Tom once told me that he had wished he had gone into music since that was the thing he loved the most. Choral music was Tom's passion. He sang wherever and whenever he could. Even during this last year when Tom had a lot of physical challenges he was singing in three different groups and various church choirs. What a guy! Marge Hildebrandt says, "I will always remember his beautiful tenor voice and the solos he sang. He was also a member of the Pops group as well. What fun we had entertaining audiences. Such enthusiasm and musicality for all these years. He was my friend and a friend of my dad. His sweet smile will be so missed." Tom will be remembered for his musical ability, sense of humor, and for his faithfulness to the Chorale. He will be missed by all.
